Theme: Reward to Receive?

We respectfully acknowledge the Whadjuk people of the Noongar Nation, who are the traditional custodians of this land.
We pay our respects to Elders both past and present.

Gracious God we ask for your blessing and healing for all who have asked for our prayers.

A Prayer Group with a number of members exists within our church to offer daily Intentional Prayer with Gill Macfarlane as the convenor. If you would like to be a part of the group or require further details, please contact Gill.

Prayer of the Week

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to suffer death upon a cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of the enemy; grant us so to die daily to sin that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer for Peace

God of the nations, whose sovereign rule brings justice and peace, have mercy on our broken and divided world. Shed abroad your peace in the hearts of all and banish from them the spirit that makes for war, that all races and peoples may learn to live as members of one family and in obedience to your law, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dandelions

A man who took great pride in his lawn found himself with a large crop of dandelions. He tried every method he knew to get rid of them. Still they plagued him.

Finally, he wrote to the Department of Agriculture. He enumerated all the things he had tried and closed his letter with the question : "What shall I do now?"

In due course the reply came: "We suggest you learn to love them."

I too had a lawn I prided myself on and I too was plagued with dandelions that I fought with every means in my power. So learning to love them was no easy matter.

Help Needed

Each Sunday as we enter our church there are always people ready to welcome us with a ready smile. People who show the face of Christ in our community.

During the service we listen to members of our family who read the word of God clearly so that we can hear what God is saying to us.

These ministries are very important to the life of our parish family. If you would like to take on either of these roles, please see Rev'd Jean. Thank you.
